FEBRUARY: BIRDS, BINOCULARS, AND BEYOND

Boosting Student Engagement and Literacy through Cross-Curricular Outdoor Learning

FEBRUARY 17TH 4:00 PM

Can birding improve student outcomes in literature, science, and math?

- Hear how Dr. Joey Kozlowski from the Edith Bowen Lab School employed a UCORE grant to transform his 2nd-grade classroom through a cross-curricular birding program.
- Discuss practical strategies with Eric Newell (Administrator at Edith Bowen Lab School) for leaders to fund and sustain outdoor education initiatives.
